

WHERE DIGITAL GAMING LEVELS UP

Home to nearly 300 video game companies, Ontario is Canada's digital gaming destination. It's no wonder why made-in-Ontario games have legions of fans worldwide; global giants and home-grown successes, such as Ubisoft, Rockstar, Certain Affinity, Sledgehammer Games, Digital Extremes, Uken Games, Big Blue Bubble, Big Viking Games and Behaviour Interactive, have chosen Ontario as a top spot to create, develop and produce the games and gaming products and services global gamers covet.

Savvy digital game developers and blue-chip clients worldwide have discovered that Ontario has the talent and sophisticated expertise to create transformative interactive experiences that go beyond pure entertainment, into new applications like medical diagnostics and self-driving cars.
